Cheating, plagiarism, academic fraud and similar activities undermine the integrity of the assessment process. They are strictly forbidden. Cheating involves obtaining an unfair advantage over other students in any way, through the use of prohibited resources. Plagiarism means the student using the previously assessed work of another person without giving them proper acknowledgement; websites as well as books, articles or other student's work are included. Academic fraud includes falsification, fabrication, or dishonest reporting of results or outcomes of study or research. In order to protect your good name, and that of the University of Divinity, you are required to sign this declaration. In the case of a group project, all group members are required to sign the declaration.
